

20 Free Local Directory List

Don't do all the free directory listings all at once. Google might see that as spamming and hurt your rankings. Better to do a few today, come back in a week or two and do a few more. Keep at it steadily until you have listed with all twenty.

<http://local.yahoo.com>

<http://www.google.com/local/>

<http://webapp.localeze.com>

<http://www.truelocal.com>

<http://lasvegas.citysearch.com> (use your city in place of lasvegas)

<http://www.yellowpages.com>

<http://www.infospace.com>

<https://advertising.superpages.com>

<http://corporate.yellowbook.com>

<http://www.magicyellow.com>

<http://dbupdate.infousa.com>

<http://inter800.com/freelist.htm>

<http://www.pinpointpages.com/>

<http://source.ibegin.com>

<https://www.yelp.com>

<http://www.yellowbot.com>

<http://citysquares.com>

<http://www.insiderpages.com>

WordsmithBob.com
DOMINATE THE 'NET

<http://www.yellowikis.org/>

<http://www.judysbook.com>

<http://www.mojopages.com>

<http://tupalo.com>

What's the next step? How can you get even more one-way, incoming links from websites and blogs directly related to your business so more people can find you on the Internet and Google keeps pushing you higher in the search engine rankings?

Check out this review of an online marketing system that does all the work for you, takes only minutes a day, doesn't require you to buy, download or learn any software, and can be used from any computer, anywhere in the world that has Internet access.

Bob McClain | bob@wordsmithbob.com | 612-226-7667 | Dominate The 'Net!